AM: Let us pray for others and for all of creation.

At the conclusion of each petition, the assembly responds to "Hear our prayer O God" with the sung response.

The Assisting Minister continues with the prayers on the next page.

Lord, you are the source of all life.
Your will to be done today throughout all of creation.
Help and guide us to be responsible stewards of the resources of this earth.
Hear our prayer O God...(Response)

Lord, you are the source of all comfort.
Bring justice to those who are oppressed,
and those who suffer insult or harm from others.
Grant them the peace only you can provide.
Hear our prayer O God...(Response)

Lord, you are the source of all healing.
Bring healing to those suffering from physical and mental illness. (pause)
Bring peace and comfort to those who care for their needs. (pause)
We also pray for those we uplift either out-loud or in the silence of our hearts. (pause)
Enfold them in your loving arms.
Hear our prayer O God...(Response)

Additional petitions may be added here, concluding with "Hear our Prayer O God."

Lord, you are the source of all salvation.
We give thanks for the promise of your steadfast love,
and for the gift of your Son, Jesus Christ.
Remain with us here in this place, as we learn what it means to be loved and to share that love for others in Word and in deed.
Hear our prayer O God...(Response)

L: O God, you have called your servants to ventures of which we cannot see the ending, by paths as yet untrodden, through perils unknown. Give us faith to go out with good courage, not knowing where we go, but only that your hand is leading us and your love supporting us; through Jesus Christ our Lord.

C: Amen

L: Gathered into one by the Holy Spirit, let us pray as Jesus taught us.

Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name,
your kingdom come,
your will be done,
on earth as in heaven.
Give us today our daily bread.
Forgive us our sins
as we forgive those who sin against us.
Save us from the time of trial
and deliver us from evil.
For the kingdom, the power,
and the glory are yours,
now and forever. Amen.
